

Obituary

Born: Tuesday, March 5, 1963

Died: Saturday, April 10, 2021

Brian F. Stowell 58, of Auburn, passed away April 10, 2021 after a long battle with cancer. Brian attended Port Byron Schools. Brian had a deep passion for music which led to his attending many local music shows. Some of his happiest days were watching his son, Brian perform and “jamming” with his granddaughter Maddyson. Brian was an avid outdoorsman that enjoyed fishing, bonfires, camping and the company of friends and family.

Brian is survived by parents Fred and Vonnie Stowell of Port Byron, sister Jamie Washburn (Pat) of Lansing, daughter Carrie Whyte of Port Byron, son Brian Stowell of Weedsport, granddaughter Maddyson Whyte and his special feline companion, Spike. Also Several Aunts, Uncles, Cousins and two Nieces.

Brian was taken from his family way too early and will be greatly missed.

At the family’s request, a private ceremony will be held Friday April 16th at Audioun Funeral Home Port Byron.
